Rutherford. The remains were interred in the Paris cemetery. The pall-bearers were: James McClintock, H. A. Power, Chas. Stephens, John M. Brennan, James McClure, E. B. January.

Let Us All Give Thanks.

On Saturday, an agreement was entered into by Mr. Crawford and the Building Committee, whereby Mr. Gibson retires from the firm of Gibson & Crawford, and the latter is to go ahead with the work on the new structure and push it to completion. Mr. Gibson, who has all along been the bone of contention, made satisfactory terms with his partner, Mr. Crawford, to withdraw from the work, and the County agreed to withdraw the two suits filed against the firm. Everybody should now give thanks, for we believe Mr. Crawford will use every means in his power to fulfil the agreement he has entered into with the Committee, and the work will be rushed to completion. The time limit given Mr. Crawford is March 1st, and if the house is not finished by that time the penalty that was in the original contract goes on.

Sudden Death of Mrs. Lucy W. Bowen.

Mrs. Lucy Wyatt Bowen, wife of ex-Sheriff Geo. W. Bowen, died suddenly Sunday evening, about 8 o'clock, at her home at Shawhan, this county. She was 73 years of age, and known by all to be a most excellent woman. She was a devoted wife and most indulgent mother, and it can be truly said that a good woman has passed away.

Mrs. Bowen complained several hours before her death from pains in her side, but was not thought to be at all ill. She was sitting on her back porch with her husband, and told him he had better go into the house, as the atmosphere was too damp for him, he being in poor health, and after going in with him, she returned to the porch, and just as she took her seat started to fall over when her son Warren caught her. She died almost instantly.

She is survived by her husband and four children—Mrs. Callie Keller, Mrs. Ida Keller, both of this county, and Mrs. Belle Newsum, of Texas, and one son, Warren Bowen. She was a sister to Mrs. Lou Palmer, of this city, and Mr. G. W. Wyatt, of this county.

Funeral will be held at residence Wednesday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, conducted by Elder Morgan.

Getting the Coin.

The New York Pacer and Trotter has the following to say of a clever Parisian: "Mr. William Hukill, of Paris, Ky., was pretty busy all day Monday and Tuesday trying to see everything being done by the long line of bookies, to hear everything that Frank Herdic or 'Silver Bill' Riley was saying and not miss any part of a heat. He succeeded pretty well, too, but it is strenuous work, and if he gets through the week without a breakdown, another record will be broken. Very little slipped by him, and he hasn't dallied with many of the 'also rans'; but the way he flirted with Hettie G. on Monday was simply scandalous. If he keeps that sort of thing up to the finish at Brighton it will take a freight car to haul the coin home, and I hope it will."

WHISKY.—3-year-old Anderson county, $2 per gallon. GGO. T. LYONS.

A Generous Gift.

A few days since Mr. John White, of this city, made a deed of trust to Mr. Wm. Myall of his undivided one-third interest which will come to him out of his father's estate. All of the personality and real estate owned by the late G. G. White in Kentucky, coming to him, is to be invested by Mr. Myall as follows: In consideration of love and affection for his daughter, Mrs. Gertrude White Thompson, out of the proceeds of sale of his interest he is to first pay a note of $500 to Citizens Bank; then to first party, John White, $5,000; out of balance he will next invest the sum of $10,000 in Kentucky real estate and take title thereof unto the said Gertrude White Thompson, to be held as separate estate by her; the balance of said proceeds shall be invested in Kentucky real estate and title taken thereof unto first party, John White, to be held, used and enjoyed by him during life, and at his death to pass to his daughter, Gertrude White Thompson, if living, if dead to her children.

This is a very generous gift on the part of Mr. White for it gives to his daughter most all of his Kentucky property.

W. Ed. Tucker Returns.

Mr. W. Ed. Tucker, the up-to-date dry goods man of Paris, returned from the East Saturday, where he has been for the past two weeks selecting his Fall and Winter stock. Mr. Tucker was better prepared this season than ever before to select one of the largest and most complete stocks of dry goods ever seen in our city. The furs, cloaks, dress goods and novelties purchased by him on this trip cannot be surpassed by any stock that will be shipped from the East to Kentucky. Mr. Tucker is young and progressive and for years associated in business with his father, the late Gideon Tucker, who enjoyed the reputation of being one of the leading merchants of Kentucky for years, surely his experience should be such as to fit him to select a stock for the trade of Paris and Bourbon County that would suit the most fastidious taste. All he asks is that the people call and examine his goods, for he feels sure he can please them.

Will Fight The Case.

Mrs. J. Vimont Lyle, wife of J. Vimont Lyle, formerly of Paris, but now a prominent young attorney of New York, whose sensational arrest at Lexington, Thursday, caused such widespread comment, will resist all efforts made to have her committed to an insane asylum.

It seems that Mrs. Lyle arrived in Lexington Thursday from Danville, and while calling upon her brother, Collins Holmes, an inmate of the insane asylum, attempted to escape with him. This led to her arrest which she resisted and attacked the officers who had her in charge. She was bent on getting her brother out of the asylum and her father, who had accompanied her to Lexington was bent on keeping his son there. Her father caused her arrest, and in open court she accused her father of having converted his property into cash for the purpose of investing it in Zion City, with Dowie, the self-styled "Elijah II," of whom he is now a pronounced follower, and that he had caused his son to be incarcerated without cause and had himself appointed his committee in order that he might get control of his property, and she indignantly asserted that her father now desired to put her out of the way that he might get possession of her money and property, also, which she and her brother inherited from their grandparents for the purpose of bestowing it all upon Dowie.

The Court was impressed with her recital and did not try the case, stating Boyle County was the proper place for trial.

Mrs. Lyle has been at High Oaks Sanitarium since Thursday night and has employed counsel to fight her case to a finish.

It is said that her husband will come on from New York to assist his wife and will no doubt take her back to New York with him.

ANOTHER CHAPTER.

Another sensational turn in the above case came yesterday morning when an effort was made to take Mrs. Lyle from High Oaks Sanitarium, where she has been confined by orders of her father. With instructions from her husband in New York Attorney Yantis went to Sanitarium with view of having her released. The officials kept her by force. Attorney Yantis then had writ of habeas corpus issued against Dr. Sprague, made returnable to-day.
